

Carteret Community College
Distinguished Alumni Award

The Distinguished Alumni Award recognizes a graduate who has exhibited exceptional volunteer or career leadership and personal character. Nominees must be a Carteret Community College graduate who earned a degree or certificate. If you would like to nominate a graduate to be considered in 2020, please fill out this form.

Deadline for nominations is February 28, 2020.

Each nominee is judged on the quality of his or her leadership performance and/or the extent to which they have made a meaningful contribution to Carteret Community College and/or the community. In order for the nominee to be adequately evaluated, the quality of the nomination itself may be a factor in the selection committee's decision. Therefore, please provide sufficient information in the nomination by answering the questions as completely as possible.

The selection committee consists of the Alumni Advisory Board.
